The Indians then lowered their cances and prepared to desert the ship, wing to new regulations Indians are the only available hunters for the Behring Bea. White men cannot use spears. Indians demanded $5 per cance extra. To this the captain agreed, and the Indians returned to the schooner. The Indians again mutinled and took possession of the vessel. The mutineers numbered twenty-one, while the captain had only five white men and two faithful Indians to help him. The Indians threatened to scuttle the vessel, securing the skins which were in the hold. Several times the vessel nearly capsized owing to their bad management.

At last the captain and his men got the drop on the mutineers and drove them into the hold, where they shut them up. He then sailed for Sitka, where he obtained handcuffs from the Government officials and brought the Indians down in irons. Sitka on June 15, when the wages were

Edward F. Hartley, the eccentric Haremite, who escaped from the Bloomingdale Insane Asylum and took refuge in Taylor's Hotel, Jersey City, spent last night in the Hudson County Jail. He was arrested late yesterday afternoon on a warrant sworn out by Supt. Steel, of the Bloomingdale Asylum, accusing him of being a dangerous lunatic. Hartley had been comparatively quiet since his incarceration. During the forenoon Supt. Steel and Keepers Buchanan, Cunningham and Gleason, of the Bloomingdale Asylum.

Gleason, of the Bioomingdale Asylum, were anxiously waiting for the case to come up in court.

Ex-Mayor Collins, counsel for the asylum, said he would apply to Judge Hudspeth for an order austaining the findings of the Sheriff's jury, which declared Hartiey insane.

Lawyer John Dennin, counsel for Hartley, is preparing the necessary papers to go before Chancellor McGill to apply for an order of a writ of habeas corpus to prevent the removal of Hartley from the State. He says he will do this regardless of the result of the proceedings to be brought before Judge Hudspeth by ex-Mayor Collins.

Lawyer Dennin claims that Hartley cannot be legally removed from the State.

WILSON PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

The Justice Says He Was Ignorant of the Law as to Fees.

Is Suspended.

Martinez Pleads Guilty and Sentence

Judges Hudspeth and Kenney, in the Court-House, Jersey City, to-day heard the pleas of Justices of the Peace, Henry Martinez and William Wilson, accused, in their official ca-pacity, of extortion and receiving fees illegally.

Justice Martinez pleaded guilty and sentence was suspended in his case, Justice Wilson, through his lawyers,

Justice Wilson, through his lawyers, pleaded not guilty, claiming that if he had done anything wrong it was through ignorance of the law and that he had returned every cent of money he had obtained through his misinterpretation of the law, to those to whom it belonged.

Decision in his case was reserved.

Winfield S. Weed and Peter Beck, the other Justices accused, have already been punished by fines.

The offense of this quartet was one of the most flagrant ever complained of in New Jersey. In their judicial capacity they took advantage of every ignorant peddler, or costermonger, who was arraigned before them, to levy excessive fines, and then remit the same upon partial payment, which, it was alleged, went into their own pockets.

When indicted on such complaints, the justices claimed that they were entitted by law to receive them.
